

All through the Bible we read about God calling and anointing people to do His work. What is the Anointing? The anointing is Gods ability into our lives to do His work. The word anointing has been used in the Old Testament many times even before the New Testament uses it. We see the word anointing in the book of Exodus when it mentioned that Moses anointed the whole tabernacle. Aaron and his sons were anointed to the priesthood. Moses had an anointing of Gods Spirit upon him. Joshua had the anointing imparted upon him through the laying on of hands. Saul was anointed to be king. David was anointed to be king. Jesus was anointed to manifest His Messiahship to the world. Now the word anoint in the Hebrew language speaks about a rubbing in and an impartation of oil. In the Old Testament Moses used oil to anoint the tabernacle. Then at a later time, we see how Samuel the prophet took the anointing oil and came to David the son of Jesse and poured it on him. Now the anointing can be strictly spoken of as an impartation. Something is transacted. There is an impartation of something. You can say, I received an anointing and you can show it. Something has been given in the spiritual realm, a transaction has taken place. A common cliché is, God does not look for our ability, but He looks for our availability. So many people avail themselves to God who does not have the ability. Later on in their walk with Christ they try to do Gods work without any ability and they dont succeed. God not only wants our availability, He wants us to receive His ability too. To avail ourselves is just one side of the coin. The other side is to learn to receive an anointing from Him. If you know God well enough, He does not give the anointing that easily. He chooses you and tests you before He gives the anointing to come on your life. The anointing is precious, very sacred. A lot of people cry out for it but fail Gods tests, so it never comes on their lives. Many people ask God to anoint them to prosper, but they have never proven themselves in every test in their lives and hence block Gods blessings in their lives. Many people desire to do great exploits and see miracles but unfortunately never pass the tests. Even though God may have a call on your life, the anointing does not come until you pass the tests. In other words, the anointing is not automatically given to anyone. It is not something automatic.
