About Distant Neighbors. A study of Mexico " political, social, cultural, economic " by a journalist who was for the past 6 years the NYT bureau chief in Mexico. This is the way country descriptions and analysis should be written. The political, economic and social highlights receive full treatment, as well as cultural and.

A former Mexico City bureau chief for the New York Times, Riding shows himself to be a sympathetic, informed observer of the complex changes wracking. As a portrait, New York Times correspondent Riding's picture of Mexico is surprisingly lacking in the individual portraits, or vignettes, one might.
