

This book gives a scripturally based teaching on forgiveness and conveys an understanding to the reader of what the true purpose and power of forgiveness is. The perception of forgiveness by today's average Christian is equal to "just sweep it under the rug and forget it" or "just toss it in the closet and shut the door." This mindset is the product of vain religious thinking and misunderstanding certain scripture passages. If we handled anything else in the same manner that we are taught to handle forgiveness we would be considered irresponsible. However, this is what many of us are taught. We sweep our hurt feelings and emotions under a rug hoping that no one will notice the growing heap. Or we try to stuff the pain of offences in an already overcrowded closet. This type of forgiveness accomplishes nothing for the kingdom of God or for the body of Christ. Real forgiveness produces real healing. Real forgiveness restores relationships. When we begin to experience real forgiveness, we will have a real testimony that will glorify God and this book does that it teaches what real forgiveness is and what it isn't.
