

The official historian of the Lanchester Car Registry tells the fascinating story of the Lanchester brothers, Frederick, George and Frank. The story has been developed from collected documents and photographs, many of them previously unpublished. Described is the design and construction of the first automobile in Great Britain in 1895, and important inventions such as the disc brake, four-wheel drive, fuel injection, turbo charging and more. This magnificent book is a must for all automobile enthusiasts.
