

Excerpt from Life of Amelia Wilhelmina Sieveking: From the German The following Memoir was written by a lady, an intimate personal friend of Miss Sieveking, who was commissioned by the latter, some time before her death, to undertake the task, and was entrusted with the necessary letters and papers. It has had a very large circulation in Germany, where Miss Sieveking's name was already well known and deeply honoured, and has passed through more than one edition in French. We believe that it will have no less interest for thoughtful readers in our own country, since the practical questions which occupied so large a portion of Miss Sieveking's life are stirring in so many minds and hearts among us.
