

This attractive 200-page volume features 160 superb illustrations in full colour, the majority by leading landscape photographer Holger Klaes, who is noted for the sensitive handling of his subjects. The photographs are accompanied by informative texts and supplemented by a comprehensive introduction in which Ferdy Fischer, an expert on North-Rhine Westphalia, acquaints the reader with the most important cultural and historical aspects of the state. The three-language (German, English, French) text makes this work of interest to those who are already familiar with the region and also fulfils the role of ambassador for all others who wish to learn more about its past, present and future.
