

Strapped in the beating heart of the Lost Generation, and over the course of three gloomy days in Hazel Martyr, Virginia, a buckled-down relic of small town Americana, an array of eccentric characters all embark on their own life-changing search, each one engaged in the realities of the daily grind and their singular aim for meaning, all searching for peace and purpose. Romance of the Absurd is a fast-moving, Existential Drama, with segments of intense eroticism, rounds of Metaphysical Madness, and gritty perversions of reality. The story tells of prosperous and doomed lives in pockets of religious fervor that grip the land, in the sex, in the drugs, in the powerful questions that each individual is forced to ask whether they're fully aware of their magnitude or not.
