Click through to Sandra's author page to view videos of the series. Excerpts of reviews from the individual books:... This book is perfect for children who are getting excited about the upcoming holiday season. I really like how the author created interaction by engaging children with the pictures. (by asking questions that kids will love) Well written and a sweet story. ~ Kaye T... warm and charming book that has that kind, nostalgia feel to it. ~ Paul J Coleman... My son absolutely loved it and I have had to read it many times to him because it was so enjoyable. ~ Jed Allen This series introduces children age 2-6 to the legend of Santa and the Christmas symbols that make up the holiday season. The book is written in short sentences, asks simple questions and also instructs the child to point out special features in the pictures. Children will enjoy the pictures and following the story throughout the season. Each section represents one of the books in the series. As you read each page, questions and functions are used to increase the interaction during the reading. This book has digital links the reader uses to answer some of the questions to move to the next page.
